The Youth Action Network (YAN) is a non-profit organization dedicated to empowering youth to take action on social justice and environmental issues. As a fully independent, youth run organization, YAN is committed to ensuring that young people play an integral role in their communities.

YAN's Resource Action Centre (RAC) is a practical database for youth to learn how to take action, with guides on fundraising and starting projects. Information on the environment, government, social justice, human rights, international affairs, and many other issues is also available. RAC can be accessed by phone, fax, email or mail.
